

Get Over It Greta
Mike Delaney, 1/30/20

Global:

Floods, landslides, and wildfires
Fill up the evening news
Every day is worse than the one before
We have so much to lose

Chorus:

Get over it, Greta; You need to chill
You'll figure it out; You have the will Perhaps we fucked (f-ed) it up
But now we're over the hill
Get over it, Greta; You need to chill

Local:

No snowy owls this winter
It never really got cold
Didn't get hardly any snow
Warmest winter on record, we're told

Chorus

Personal:

Greta is only one young lady
But wiser than her years
When she speaks, people listen
She sees what we should fear

Chorus?

Bridge:

A drop starts a trickle

A trickle grows into a stream

A stream becomes a river

A river flows to the sea

I need to be that drop that starts the flow

Not wait for others to run the show

Know show go blow crow foe no stow woe

“How Dare You!” Greta Thunberg to the UN Climate Summit on 9/23/19. Maybe put together “how dare you” and “we’ll see what happens”.

Yesterday (12/11/19), Greta was announced as the Time Magazine Person of the Year and tRump tweeted on Thursday morning. "Greta must work on her Anger Management problem, then go to a good old-fashioned movie with a friend! Chill Greta, Chill!". So, she put this on her Twitter profile. "A teenager working on her anger management problem. Currently chilling and watching a good old-fashioned movie with a friend." [At that conference, Thunberg gave an impassioned speech in which she implored office-holders, "you all come to us young people for hope. How dare you? You have stolen my dreams and my childhood with your empty words, and yet I'm one of the lucky ones. People are suffering. People are dying. Entire ecosystems are collapsing."-

“Chill, Greta, Chill”. This seems to be “Get Over It, Greta”.

Turn this into a terse intro for the song...

Last year at the UN Climate Summit, 16-year old activist Greta Thunberg gave an impassioned speech. She was given Time's "Person of the Year Award" and tRump tweeted that she needed to "work on her anger management problem...go to a movie...and Chill, Greta, Chill." She doesn't need to chill, and we can't wait for her generation to deal with the Climate Catastrophe.

I've got to do something, myself
Not wait for others to do it for me
One person can make a difference

One person can start a movement
It starts with one
One turns into many

Personal:

What are we going to do about climate change? Get over it.
Someone smart will figure it out
It's too cold in the winter anyway
Chill, Greta, Chill
How dare you?
Bigger storms
Longer droughts views choose lose

In store war
All she gets is sarcasm
