

I WANT TO BE QUARANTINED WITH YOU

Mike Delaney, 3/10/20

Why did I go to that show?
Found out later it was the wrong place to go
Some people were sick, but I took you along
And now I'm directed to stay at home

Two weeks by myself
But I need to spend it with someone else
You're my constant companion
Together we put our life up on a shelf

Chorus:

We're staying home, it's what we must do
But we're tough, we'll make it through
If we have to stay home, let's do it together
I want to be quarantined with you

What's vital? Write out a chart
Opposite ends of the couch, that's a start
But we share everything in life
Do we have to stay six feet apart?

Chorus

Your little quirks, used to be cute
You realize, I'm an old coot
Hair-trigger tension becomes desperation
Fortunately, there's nothing to shoot

Bridge:

The fridge nearly empty; No more soup on the shelf
Things tucked away; stuff I've hidden/saved for myself
Things looking dire; reluctant to share
"No, I don't have a square to spare"

<instrumental verse>

Final Chorus:

Done staying home, our time is through
Just get me out, so much to do
I need to spend lots of time on my own
Hope never (again) to be quarantined with you

Tag:

Now I can breathe free on my own
Hope never (again) to be quarantined with you